5. ESSAY

Like her patron saint, Saint Sophia of Rome, Sonia demonstrated unwavering faith in Jesus Christ, encouraging others to devote their lives to Him in all things. Please reflect on the following virtues and write an essay (500 word maximum) on how these virtues have helped define your vocational call, and how you plan to continue a life of generosity, service, and faith in whatever profession you choose.

Wisdom: to work diligently with intentionality in recognition that a true education is a personal encounter, not a mere transfer of data.

Faith: to believe in Jesus Christ, "the Son of the living God" (Mt 16.16) - the source of all wisdom, power, and virtue - Faith is the means by which man can know and do all things, for "all things are possible to him who believes" (Mk 9.23, Mt 17.20).

Hope: to be joyful and strong when faced with adversity is a mark of good character and confidence in our Christian beliefs. Hope is the conviction that a life built on faith will produce good fruit and benefit the world. We come to know and understand ourselves better and can therefore position ourselves to live joyful lives in service to God and others.

Love: to love God and neighbor. We respond to Christ's call to love one another. Love, the settled disposition to be and to do good for the sake of others, guides our actions.

Please write/type your essay on a separate sheet and attach it to the application.
